

Choctology™ College Trivia Game '17

The Sweetest Single Elimination Bracket Game

South / Midwest Brackets

Individual/Team _____ Score ___ / 16

RULES: Play individually or as teams! For each seed number, there is one winning answer per seed from the 2 teams in related brackets (i.e. one right answer for Seed #1, one for #2, etc. - in East/West and a different questions set for Midwest/South)

1. Team one either decides to answer the question or pass to team 2, who answers
2. Place a chocolate piece with the name of the school that matches your answer in the circle
3. When completed, the answers can be found at www.chocolatetext.com/choctology/

#1 Seeds: The Chi Omega fountain at this prairie school was based on one at a house in Northumberland, England.

#9 This school's radio station WSOU, Was ranked by Rolling Stone Magazine to be one of the top 5 rock stations in the nation in 2008.

#2 Seeds: Founded in 1780, as Transylvania University, it's among the oldest in the United States and a large producer of U.S. statesmen.

#10 Seeds: Students use part of the fall semester preparing for Homecoming celebration which draws 40,000 alumni and over 70,000 participants

#3 Seeds: This school's athletic teams have won 126 national championships, including 113 NCAA championships, more than any other university.

#11 Seeds: Located in a traditional college town, it offers students a land, sea and urban experience.

#4 Seeds: Opened on November 1, 1855, as North Western Christian University- more than 94 percent of students are involved in campus activities.

#12 Seeds: Most prominently known for its Recording, Aerospace and Music Industry programs. This university has partnered in research endeavors with the Oak Ridge National Laboratory.

#5 Seeds: In 1937, a professor here first conceptualized the basic tenets of what would become the world's first electronic digital computer.

#13 Seeds: In 1824, The Marquis de Lafayette, a French general who became an American Revolution Commander laid the cornerstone here.

#6 Seeds: 48-hour film festival is held at this University each year for the general public to attend. Actors, editors, directors, and composers are showcased.

#14 Seeds: This university's became the first metro-New York college with a completely wireless Internet campus.

#7 Seeds: This school has a body of living alumni comprising more than 540,000 people, one of the largest alumni bases of any university in the world.

#15 Seeds: In 1948, it was started as an extension campus for another school on this game board. In 1968 it became an autonomous University.

#8 Seeds: This University's Bell Tower, listed on the National Register of Historic Places plays their Alma Mater at 5 pm every day.

#16 Seeds: Man Alive! Women comprised 58.9% of the undergraduates in fall 2015; men 41.1%.

