

Choctology™ College Trivia

The Sweetest Single Elimination Bracket Game

Individual/Team _____ Score ___ / 16

RULES: Play individually or as teams! For each seed number, there is one winning answer from the 4 teams in different regions (i.e. one right answer for Seed #1, one for #2, etc.)

1. Team one either decides to answer the question or pass to team 2, who answers
2. Place a chocolate piece with the name of the school that matches your answer in the circle
3. When completed, the answers can be found at www.chocolatetext.com/choctology/

#1 Seeds: The Chi Omega fountain at this prairie school was based on one at a house in Northumberland, England. [KANSAS]

#9 Located in rural New England, all heat on this self-sufficient campus is steam, and a cogeneration plant supplies most of the school's electricity. [UCONN]

#2 Seeds: This Catholic university opened twice – in 1841 and, after it was closed by the Philadelphia Nativist riots, in 1846. [VILLANOVA]

#10 Seeds: The 535-foot tall Cathedral of Learning is the tallest educational building in the Western Hemisphere. [PITTSBURGH]

#3 Seeds: In September 1918 the entire senior class of this university enlisted to fight in World War I. [TEXAS A&M]

#11 Seeds: This State's University was founded to care for orphans of its Civil War veterans, and secondly, a public teacher training institution. [NORTHERN IOWA UNIVERSITY]

#4 Seeds: The discovery of plutonium by Glenn Seaborg at this school led to the development of the atomic bomb. [CALIFORNIA]

#12 Seeds: Founded in 1701 in Saybrook Colony this University is the third-oldest institution of higher education in the United States. [YALE]

#5 Seeds: A sculpture of alum and Muppets creator Jim Henson and Kermit the Frog can be seen at this state university. [MARYLAND]

#13 Seeds: This island University co-manages the famous Brookhaven National Laboratory and is the largest single-site employer on this island. [STONY BROOK]

#6 Seeds: This well-endowed state university has its own nuclear reactor. [TEXAS]

#14 Seeds: The university's unique facilities include an on-campus grape vineyard, and a commercial winery, where student-made wines have won over 300 awards since 1997. [FRESNO STATE]

#7 Seeds: This West Coast state university changed its name 10 times to better align itself with available federal grants. [OREGON STATE]

#15 Seeds: Most prominently known for its Recording, Aerospace and Music Industry programs. This university has partnered in research endeavors with the Oak Ridge National Laboratory. [MIDDLE TENN. STATE UNIVERSITY]

#8 Seeds: Seventy-eight Oscar winners graduated from this school, the most of any institution in the world. [SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA]

#16 Seeds: Founded in 1868 by black and white leaders after the American Civil War to provide education to freedmen. [HAMPTON UNIVERSITY]

